

Strategic Choice

- Strategic choice in strategic management is the process of selecting a strategy to help an organization achieve its goals.
- It involves evaluating internal and external factors to determine how effective different strategies might be.

