ONE WORD SUBSTITUTION

One-word substitution is the practice of using a single word in place of a group of words or a long phrase to make a sentence more concise and clear. It helps in avoiding wordiness and makes communication more effective. One-word substitutions are commonly used in formal writing to convey meaning precisely.

Example

- A person who travels to space: Astronaut
- A place where books are kept: Library
- A person who cannot read or write: Illiterate
- A speech given without preparation: Extempore
