

Service Guarantee

- A service guarantee is a promise made by a company to provide a certain level of service and to compensate customers if the promise is not met. Service guarantees are a marketing tool that can help companies build customer loyalty and differentiate their services.

